PART II

Approved Dissemination of NIS toNon-IAC Government Departments and Agencies

The following non-IAC agencies have requested the NIS elements listed below. The NIS Committee has determined the agency need-to-know for categories of information contained in the sections outlined. To insure that the need-to-know qualification is continually met, the producing IAC agency will determine the releasability to the non-IAC agencies listed of each unpublished element or revision falling within the categories set forth and where non-releasability is determined, the producing agency will so indicate to CIA at the time of submission of the element or revision to CIA for publication. CIA, as executive agency, in the absence of such indication will release the elements according to the following list:
